

Women's Club Evening Department Will Make Debut at Open House

Newly Formed Group Will Sponsor Affair at Clubhouse
Tuesday Evening at 8:30 o'Clock.

The newly formed Evening Department of the Montclair Women's Club will hold an open house Tuesday evening at 8:30 at the club house, 82 Union Street.

Honor guests will be Mrs. William E. Packer, president of the Montclair Women's Club; Miss Mary Butler, president of Questers; Mrs. Elliott Middleton, Mrs. William T. Ropes, Mrs. C. C. Belling, Mrs. George Felt, Mrs. Robert Hughes, Mrs. J. Paul Leinroth and Mrs. Wallace C. Speers, Women's Club members who worked with a group from Questers in the formation of the Evening Department.

The new department was formed to answer the needs of those reaching the age limit of Questers and who are not able to attend the afternoon meetings of the Women's Club. Members will meet twice a month on Wednesday evenings. There is no age limit in the new group.

Friends of members of the Evening Department are invited to attend the open house, as are former Questers. Mrs. Jackson Downes, hospitality chairman, will be in charge. An Autumn theme will be carried out in the decorations with chrysanthemums and colorful leaves. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Kenneth Shand Jr. is chairman of the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Tongue, former Montclair residents, who have recently been living in New York, have returned to Montclair and are residing at 101 Gates Avenue.

Mrs. Gilbert Emerson of 321 Upper Mountain Avenue, Upper Montclair, is spending a few days in Boston, Mass., where she is attending the national Girl Scout convention.

Mrs. George Hathaway of 138 Buckingham Road, Upper Montclair, is entertaining informally tomorrow in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Ronald Macomber. Mrs. Macomber and her two daughters, Ginger and Jan, are leaving shortly for Manila, P. I., where they will join Mr. Macomber.

Mrs. Scott Schieicher will be hostess at a small luncheon party on Tuesday at her mother's home, 16 Glenside Terrace, Upper Montclair. Mrs. H. Holt Appar of Verona will be guest of honor. Mrs. Appar is moving to Michigan in November.

William R. Weissbach Weds Lovina French

Former Resident and Bride
Now in Poconos.

Miss Lovina May French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. French of Bloomfield, was married Saturday to William Robert Weissbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weissbach of Longwood Lake, Oak Ridge, formerly of Upper Montclair. The Rev. Waldron Coon officiated at the ceremony in the Church of the Advent, Bloomfield, and a reception was held at Old Canal Inn, Nutley.

The bride wore a Queen Anne style gown with a lace bodice and satin skirt, and a five star headpiece trimmed with orange blossoms holding a fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white pompoms and an orchid.

Miss Ethel French was maid of honor for her sister, and the bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn French, another sister; Miss Fay Dand, their cousin, and Miss Janet Madsen. Carl Westover was best man and Douglas Weissbach, cousin of the bridegroom; Henry Briese, cousin of the bride, and Michael Bohon, were ushers.

The bride was graduated from North Arlington High School and is with the Aetna Casualty and Surety Co.
